when you started the transfer.

- If circumstances beyond our control (such as fire or flood) prevent the transfer, despite reasonable precautions that we have taken.
- There may be other exceptions stated in our agreement with you.

Confidentiality

We will disclose information to third parties about your account or transfers you make:

- Where it is necessary for completing transfers; or
- In order to verify the existence and condition of your account for a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant; or
- In order to comply with government agency or court orders; or
- As explained in the separate Privacy Disclosure

Unauthorized Transfers, Consumer Liability

Tell us at once, if you believe your code or password has been lost or stolen, or if you believe that an electronic fund transfer has been made without your permission using information from your check. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your account (plus your maximum overdraft line of credit). If you tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your code or password, you can lose no more than $50 if someone used your code or password without your permission.

If you do NOT tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your code or password, and we can prove we could have stopped someone from using your code or password without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.

Also, if your statement shows transfers that you did not make or authorize tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed or available to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay kept you from telling us), we will extend the time periods.

Error Resolution Notice - In case of Errors or Questions about your online banking transfers here is what you should do:

- Contact us by electronic mail at: support@YourCovenantBank.com or call us at (267) 327-4910 or write to us at Covenant Bank at 1980 S. Easton Rd. Suite 110 Doylestown, PA 18901.
- We must hear from you no later than sixty (60) days after we have sent the first paper statement or notified you that your E-Statement was available on which the problem or error appeared. If you notify us verbally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within ten (10) business days.
- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or the transaction you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.
- For a bill payment, tell us the checking account number used to pay the bill, payee name, date the payment was sent, payment amount, reference number,

and payee account number for the payment in question.

We will determine whether an error occurred within ten (10) business days (twenty (20) business days if the electronic transfer involved a new account), after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to forty-five (45) days, ninety (90) days if the transfer involved a new account, or a foreign- initiated transfer), to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will credit your account within ten (10) business days, (twenty (20) business days if the transfer involved a new account), for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within (10) business days, we will not credit your account. If we determine that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation within three (3) business days after we finish our investigation and debit the amount of the error that we previously credited. You may request copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

We will honor (without charge) checks, drafts or similar instruments payable to third parties and preauthorized debits for 5 business days after the date of the notification of the provisional credit being debited, to the extent that these items would have been honored if the provisionally credited funds had not been reversed.

Bill Pay Service

The Covenant Bank Internet Bill Payment Service (the "Service") allows you to schedule bill payments through the Service. You can schedule, at your option, for the payment of your current, future and recurring bills from any of your Covenant Bank checking accounts. There is no limit to the number of payments that may be authorized. You may pay any merchant or individual through the use of the Service.

We reserve the right to restrict types of payees to whom payments may be made using the Service from time to time. You should not use the Service to make payments to settle securities purchases, payments to interest bearing accounts, payment of taxes, court-directed payments, or foreign payments (payments made outside the United States). Payments for these payees will be your sole responsibility if delayed or improperly processed or credited.

By furnishing us with the names of payees/merchants, you authorize us to follow the payment instructions to these payee/merchants that you provide us through Covenant Bank Internet Services. When we receive a payment instruction (for the current or a future date), we will remit funds to the payee on your behalf from the funds in your selected checking account. When Covenant Bank Internet Services receives a payment instruction, you authorize it to charge your checking account and remit funds on your behalf so that the funds arrive as close to the business day designated by you as reasonably possible. While it is anticipated that most transactions will be completed on the exact day designated, it is understood that due to circumstances beyond the control of Covenant Bank Internet Services, particularly delays in handling and posting payments slow-responding companies or financial institutions, some transactions may take a day or even a few days longer. For this reason, it is recommended that all payments transfers be scheduled to at least (7) seven business days before the actual due date, not the late date. If you properly follow the procedures described herein, and Covenant

Bank Internet Services fails to deliver a payment on the scheduled payment date, Covenant Bank Internet Services will bear the responsibility for late charges ($50.00 maximum). In any other event, including, but not limited to, choosing a payment date less than (7) seven days prior to the actual due date, the risk of incurring and the responsibility for paying any and all charges or penalties shall be borne by you.

Covenant Bank Internet Services will use its best efforts to process all your payments properly. However, Covenant Bank Internet Services shall incur no liability if it is unable to complete any payments initiated by you through The Service because of the existence of any one or more of the following circumstances:

- Your account does not contain sufficient funds to complete the transaction or the transaction would exceed the credit limit of your overdraft protection account.
- The Covenant Bank Internet Services processing center is not working properly and you know or have been advised by the service about the malfunction before you execute the transaction.
- You have not provided Covenant Bank Internet Bill Payment Service with the correct names or account information for those persons or entities to whom you wish to direct payment.
- Circumstances beyond the Covenant Bank Internet Service's control such as, but not limited to, fire, flood, or interference from an outside force that would prevent the proper execution of the transaction, Covenant Bank Internet Services has taken reasonable precautions to avoid those circumstances.

You have the right to stop or change any scheduled payment. You must cancel the payment by no later than 5:00 PM (Eastern Time), on the Payment Date; by using the DELETE function on the Covenant Bank Internet Services "Scheduled Payment" screen.

Covenant Bank reserves the right to terminate your use of Covenant Bank Internet Bill Payment Service in whole or part, at any time without prior notice. If, for any reason, you should ever wish to cancel the Service, we strongly suggest that you cancel all future bill payments at the same time that you cancel your service, either by deleting those payments yourself using Covenant Bank Internet Services or calling Covenant Bank's Customer Service at 1-866-672-2655. This will ensure that future payments and transfers made by you will not be duplicated. We will automatically delete all outstanding payment orders (all individual payments and all recurring payments) once we have been notified that your service has been terminated. We will continue to maintain your accounts until you notify us otherwise.

Bill Pay Fees

At this time Covenant Bank does not charge any fee for Online Bill Payments.

TERMINATION OR DISCONTINUATION

You may terminate any Service by e-mailing Online Banking Services through Web Banking, calling us at (267) 327-4910, or by writing to Retail Online Banking Services at 1980 S. Easton Rd. Suite 110 Doylestown, PA 18901. If you terminate a Service, you authorize us to continue making those transfers and payments that you had scheduled or paid for prior to termination. We have the right to refuse or revoke access to or terminate any Service at any time, without cause or notice or refund of previously charged or accrued fees. We may also refuse to make any transfer or payment to any payee without cause or notice. Your privileges may be revoked without notice if any Account becomes overdrawn, delinquent or otherwise ceases to be in good standing, or you do not utilize the Service for a period of time. If we terminate your use of a Service, we reserve the right to make no further transactions from or to your designated Account, including any transactions you previously authorized. Neither termination nor discontinuation of any Service shall affect your liability or obligation under this Agreement.

CONTACT BY COVENANT BANK OR AFFILIATED PARTIES

No Covenant Bank or company affiliated with Covenant Bank will contact you requesting your Login ID or Password for the Service. If you are contacted by anyone requesting this information, do not disclose your information and contact us immediately.

The account administrator is responsible for all activities involving your enrolled accounts. The Account Administrator may choose to authorize other staff members to access or manage such accounts as your agent. The Account Administrator alone will determine the administrative rights for individual staff members, which may include permission to perform any one or any combination of the following activities:

By initiating the transfer of funds between Activated Accounts, you represent and warrant to us that the balance of collected funds in the Activated Accounts is equal to or greater than the amount of the transfer. We have no obligation to verify the availability of collected funds in the Activated Accounts at the time of the transfer request. If an overdraft is created as a result of a transfer request, you agree to reimburse us for the amount of the overdraft immediately upon request and to pay such charges as may be imposed by us as a result of the overdraft.

The number of transfers from a Savings and Money Market account is limited as described in the applicable Deposit Agreement and Disclosure. If a hold has been placed on deposits made to an account from which you wish to transfer funds, you cannot transfer the portion of the funds held until the hold expires. You may call us at 267-327-4910 or 866-672-2655 to verify whether a transfer has occurred. Other than the provision of monthly account statements, we will not otherwise provide written or oral notice of transfers involving your Activated Accounts. The provisions of this section shall survive termination of this Access Agreement.

C. ACH Payments

Refer to the separate ACH Services Agreement. The cutoff hour for ACH transactions is 5:00 p.m. on business days. Our business days are Monday through Friday, excluding Saturday, Sunday and Federal holidays. ACH transactions received after the cutoff hour or on a non-business day may be deemed received as of the next business day.

D. Account Statements

For each Activated Account to which or from which an electronic transfer may be made, we will provide you a detailed periodic statement for each monthly cycle in which an electronic transfer has occurred and will send a detailed periodic statement at least quarterly if no electronic transfer occurs.

E. Stop Payment

Subject to certain limitations, you may order the Bank to stop payment on any check or other item drawn on or electronic transfers affecting your Activated Account (collectively "Items"), whether drawn by you or any other owner of the Activated Account. A fee is charged for this service. The stop payment request will be effective if the Bank receives the order at such time and in such manner as to afford the Bank a reasonable opportunity to act upon the order. A stop payment order may be completed online or by calling us at 267-327-4910 or 866-672-2655 Monday through Friday 8am to 5:30pm. If you miss a cutoff time, your stop payment request will not be processed until the next available cut-off time. In all events, stop payment requests received in any way after 5:30 p.m. will be processed on the next Business Day. In the case of payments you have arranged to be regularly made from your Activated Accounts, oral or written notice must be made in time for us to receive your request at least three business days before the next payment is scheduled to be made. The Bank will require you to provide the exact account number, the date, the exact amount, and the check number, together with the name of the payee for each Item. Accuracy is essential since computers operating on the basis of precise information process stop payment orders.

If you give the Bank incorrect information, the Bank will not be responsible for failing to stop payment on the Item. A stop payment order becomes effective when we confirm its receipt and have verified that the item or transaction has not been paid by us. You acknowledge that acceptance of a stop payment order by the Bank will not constitute a representation that the Bank has a reasonable opportunity to act upon the order.

You may not stop payment on a cashier's check, certified check, guaranteed check, money order or on any check for which a cashier's check was issued. In addition, you may not stop payment on checks governed by a separate agreement, such as a check guaranty agreement. Further, you may not stop payment on an Item after acceptance of the Item by the Bank. You should be aware that while payment of an Item may be stopped, you might remain liable to any person, including the Bank, who is a holder of the Item despite the stop payment order. The validity and duration of stop payment orders are subject to applicable state law. Stop payment orders are good for 6 months (unless renewed). A confirmation of the stop order will display after you place the stop payment. The Bank has the right to pursue reimbursement, upon re-crediting your account following an inadvertent payment of an Item over a valid stop order. In such an event, you agree to transfer to the Bank all rights against the payee or other holder of the Item. You agree to indemnify, defend and hold the Bank harmless from any loss, expense, and cost incurred as a result of stopping payment on an Item, other than losses or costs arising out of our failure to act in good faith or with ordinary care. If you issue a replacement Item, you are responsible for reviewing the prior statements to determine if the original Item has been paid. The Bank will only review its records for transactions since your last statement date. The Bank will not be responsible for any loss incurred by you if you issue a replacement Item for any check on which you stopped payment if payment of the original Item was reflected on a previous bank statement. The provisions of this section shall survive termination of this Access Agreement.

F. Bill Pay

The Covenant Bank Internet Bill Payment Service (the "Service") allows you to schedule bill payments through the Service. You can schedule, at your option, for the payment of your current, future and recurring bills from any of your Covenant Bank checking accounts. There is no limit to the number of payments that may be authorized. You may pay any merchant or individual through the use of the Service.

We reserve the right to restrict types of payees to whom payments may be made using the Service from time to time. You should not use the Service to make payments to settle securities purchases, payments to interest bearing accounts, payment of taxes, court-directed payments, or foreign payments (payments made outside the United States). Payments for these payees will be your sole responsibility if delayed or improperly processed or credited.

By furnishing us with the names of payees/merchants, you authorize us to follow the payment instructions to these payee/merchants that you provide us through Covenant Bank Internet Services. When we receive a payment instruction (for the current or a future date), we will remit funds to the payee on your behalf from the funds in your selected checking account. When Covenant Bank Internet Services receives a payment instruction, you authorize it to charge your checking account and remit funds on your behalf so that the funds arrive as close to the business day designated by you as reasonably possible. While it is anticipated that most transactions will be completed on the exact day designated, it is understood that due to circumstances beyond the control of Covenant Bank Internet Services, particularly delays in handling and posting payments slow- responding companies or financial institutions, some transactions may take a day or even a few days longer. For this reason, it is recommended that all payments transfers be scheduled to at least (7) seven business days before the actual due date, not the late date. If you properly follow the procedures described herein, and Covenant Bank Internet Services fails to deliver a payment on the scheduled payment date, Covenant Bank Internet Services will bear the responsibility for late charges ($50.00 maximum). In any other event, including, but not limited to, choosing a payment date less than (7) seven days prior to the actual due date, the risk of incurring and the responsibility for paying any and all charges or penalties shall be borne by you.

Covenant Bank Internet Services will use its best efforts to process all your payments properly. However, Covenant Bank Internet Services shall incur no liability if it is unable to complete any payments initiated by you through The Service because of the existence of any one or more of the following circumstances:

- Your account does not contain sufficient funds to complete the transaction or the transaction would exceed the credit limit of your overdraft protection account.
- The Covenant Bank Internet Services processing center is not working properly and you know or have been advised by the service about the malfunction before you execute the transaction.
- You have not provided Covenant Bank Internet Bill Payment Service with the correct names or account information for those persons or entities to whom ever you wish to direct payment.
- Circumstances beyond the Covenant Bank Internet Service's control such as, but not limited to, fire, flood, or interference from an outside force that would prevent the proper execution of the transaction, Covenant Bank Internet Services has taken reasonable precautions to avoid those circumstances.

You have the right to stop or change any scheduled payment. You must cancel the payment by no later than 5:00 PM (Eastern Time), on the Payment Date; by using the DELETE function on the Covenant Bank Internet Services "Scheduled Payment" screen.

Covenant Bank reserves the right to terminate your use of Covenant Bank Internet Bill Payment Service in whole or part, at any time without prior notice. If, for any reason, you should ever wish to cancel the Service, we strongly suggest that you cancel all future bill payments at the same time that you cancel your service, either by deleting those payments yourself using Covenant Bank Internet Services or calling Covenant Bank's Customer Service at 1-866-672-2655. This will ensure that future payments and transfers made by you will not be duplicated. We will automatically delete all outstanding payment orders (all individual payments and all recurring payments) once we have been notified that your service has been terminated. We will continue to maintain your accounts until you notify us otherwise.

G. Bill Pay Fees

At this time Covenant Bank does not charge any fee for Online Bill Payments.

General Conditions

A. Payment Account (Checking Account)

You must designate a payment account (checking account) for selected services such as Bill Pay. You agree to pay promptly all fees and charges for services provided under this Agreement, and authorize us to charge the account that you have designated as the payment account or any other account for fees and any overdrafts. If you close the payment account, you must immediately notify Covenant Bank and identify a new payment account for the selected services. Additionally, if you close all Covenant Bank accounts, you must immediately cancel all your Online Banking services.

B. Maintenance of Account Balances

Covenant Bank operates in both real time mode (upon receipt) and batch mode (at certain scheduled times) depending upon timing, scheduling, and method of receiving and posting transactions. Transfers and bill payments occur in real time. Some batch transactions such as Automated Clearing House (ACH) debit and credit transactions are posted to your account at various times throughout the Business Day. From time to time during any Business Day, Covenant Bank may transmit or receive a balance file, which debits or credits your account. Transactions, which may be authorized online such as ATM and point of sale transactions, may also be posted to your account in real time mode. It is your responsibility to see that you have sufficient collected funds in your accounts throughout each day to cover all debits to each account. If there are insufficient funds, you may receive a message in your Mailbox indicating that a transaction will not be processed.

C. Overdrafts and Order of Payments

If your account has insufficient funds at the time Covenant Bank performs any fund transfer (checks, ATM withdrawals, pre-authorized transactions, Online Banking Business Banking transfers and bill payments, etc.) that you have requested for a given business day, then:

1. Pre-authorized overdraft privileges will be exercised including transfers from checking, savings, or Business line of credit, but only to the extent authorized;
2. If your account still lacks sufficient collected funds, we may, in our sole discretion, give certain electronic funds transfers involving currency disbursement, like ATM withdrawals, priority; and
3. If your account still lacks sufficient collected funds, we may allow the electronic funds transfers initiated through Online Banking to be completed resulting in an overdraft of your account, or
4. We may choose not to process certain transactions.

If you have a scheduled payment that results in an insufficient funds return, the scheduled payment will not be processed, and no attempt will be made to retry processing the payment. Your next scheduled payment will not be affected. You are responsible for making any scheduled payments, and paying any related charges or penalties, if Covenant Bank is unable to make your payment due to insufficient funds. The Bank reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to refuse to process any item or any transaction which will result in an overdraft of your account, with the limited exception for accounts with preauthorized overdraft privileges. In addition, the bank may choose to close your account. In all events, you will be charged the insufficient funds charges that apply to your account.

D. Account Cancellation

If you wish to cancel any of the Online Banking Services please contact Covenant Bank by calling us at 267-327-4910. You can send cancellation instructions in writing to Covenant Bank, 1980 S. Easton Road, Suite 110, Doylestown PA 18901. The provisions of this section shall survive termination of all Services.

G. Monthly Fees

You agree to pay any special charges in effect as announced by the Bank from time to time. These charges are in addition to the fees and service charges specified in your applicable checking, savings or overdraft protection account agreements (for example, uncollected or overdraft charges on your checking account). If the payment account has insufficient funds to cover fees, the Bank will deduct the fee from any other checking account (in any order we may choose). If the fee cannot be paid, we may cancel your bill payment service. After cancellation, your bill payment service may be reinstated at the Bank's discretion by contacting Covenant Bank once sufficient funds are available in your payment account to cover the bill payment fees and any other pending transfers or debits.

H. Changes to Charges, Fees or Other Terms

We reserve the right to change the charges, fees or other terms described in this Access Agreement. However, when changes are made, we will notify you online, or send a notice to you at the address shown on our records, or send you an electronic mail message (Mailbox services). The notice will be posted or sent at least thirty (30) days in advance of the effective date of any additional fees for online transactions, or of any stricter limits on the type, amount or frequency of transactions or any increase in your responsibility for unauthorized transactions or other change, unless an immediate change is necessary to maintain the security of the system. If such a change is made, and it can be disclosed without jeopardizing the security of the system, we will provide you with electronic or written notice within thirty (30) days after the change. As always, you may choose to accept or decline changes by continuing or discontinuing the accounts or services to which these changes relate. We also reserve the option, in our business judgment, to waive, reduce or reverse charges or fees in individual situations. The applicable Deposit Agreement and Disclosure govern changes to fees applicable to specific accounts.

I. Service Changes and Additions

You may request at any time to change the processing instructions for any Service. We are not obligated to implement any requested changes until we have had a reasonable opportunity to act upon your request. In making changes, we are entitled to rely on requests purporting to be from you. For certain changes, we may require that your requests be in writing, in a form and manner acceptable to us, or be from an authorized person you designated. Changes are subject to our approval. Bank may, from time to time, introduce new online services. We will notify you of any new services. By using these services when they become available, you agree to be bound by the rules communicated to you concerning these services.

You are responsible for any withdrawal from your account that bears or appears to us to bear a facsimile signature that resembles the signature of an authorized person. We may pay the withdrawal and may charge your account for it. You agree to compensate us for all losses, claims, damages, or expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees that result from our payment of a withdrawal bearing a facsimile that resembles your signature or a facsimile that we believe you authorized.

This Access Agreement will be controlling in the event of any conflict between it and any relevant Deposit Account Terms & Conditions, Signature Card, Administrator's Training Guide, user documentation, Materials, and any other document or written or oral statement. Current user documentation will be made available upon request. This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, oral or written, between you and us relating to any service (excluding the current Deposit Account Terms & Conditions and Disclosures and excluding any security procedure and software license agreement previously agreed upon unless we notify you otherwise in writing). The terms and conditions of this Access Agreement are in addition to the terms and conditions of any credit agreement you may have with us. If you elect to receive other services from us, the terms and conditions for such services shall be incorporated herein by this reference.

This Access Agreement is binding upon each of our respective successors and permitted assigns. You may not assign any of your rights or duties described in this Access Agreement without our prior written consent. This Access Agreement is not for the benefit of any other person, and no other person has any right under this Access Agreement against you or us. Nothing contained in this Access Agreement creates any agency, fiduciary, joint venture or partnership relationship between you and us. We are responsible only for performing the Services expressly provided for in this Access Agreement or by subsequent agreement between us. We may contract with an outside vendor in providing any Anytime Banking service. If any provision of this Access Agreement or the application of any such provision to any person or set of circumstances is determined to be invalid, unlawful, void or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Access Agreement, and the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is determined to be invalid, unlawful, void and unenforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law, shall remain in full force and effect. With respect to a given service, this Access Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted according to federal law, the NACHA rules and the law of the state of Pennsylvania. No delay or failure to exercise any right or remedy under this Access Agreement shall be deemed to be a waiver of such right or remedy. No waiver of a single breach or default under this Access Agreement is a waiver of any other breach or default. Any waiver under this Access Agreement must be in writing.

P. Information Processing and Reporting

We may offer you a number of services, which require us to receive process and report information involving your accounts and transactions. We will not be responsible for determining the accuracy, timeliness or completeness of any information, which you or others provide to us. We shall be protected in acting on any oral or written request believed in good faith to be genuine and to have been made by your Account Administrator or any authorized User. We will not have a duty to interpret the content of any data transmitted to us, except to the limited extent set forth in this Access Agreement and any operating procedures. Unless we agree otherwise in writing, we will not be required, by means of any security procedures or otherwise; to detect errors in the transmission or content of any information we receive from you or third parties.

THE SERVICES OF ANY SERVICE PROVIDER OR OTHER THIRD PARTY, OR ANY SERVICES OR PRODUCTS OF THE BANK OR ITS AFFILIATES, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, EVEN IF THE BANK IS ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF A POTENTIAL CLAIM, THE BANK DOES NOT WARRANT ITS SERVICES OR ANY RELATED PRODUCTS OR SOFTWARE WILL OPERATE ERROR FREE OR WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED.

You acknowledge that it is not possible for our services to be totally free from operator, programming or equipment error, and that errors in processing and compiling data may occasionally occur (e.g., due to the failure of others to provide accurate information, telecommunication failures, or a breakdown in an electronic data interchange). As such, you agree to review and verify all results and to maintain adequate controls for insuring both the accuracy of data transmissions and the detection of errors. Unless otherwise required by law, our sole responsibility for any reporting errors caused by us will be to reprocess the information for the period in question and to submit corrected reports at our own expense. You agree to maintain adequate backup files of the data you submit for a reasonable period of time in order to facilitate any needed reconstruction of your transactions (e.g., in the event of a telecommunication failure). If we are unable to provide a Service for any reason, we will promptly inform you of the problem and will take reasonable steps to resume processing.

Q. Limitation of Liability

Covenant Bank will not be liable for loss or damage of any kind if we do not complete a transfer to or from any Activated Account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you if:

- The transfer or payment could not be made or completed due to system unavailability.
- Circumstances beyond our control (such as fire, communications failures, flood or improper transmission or handling of payments by a third party) prevent the transfer, despite reasonable precautions taken by us.

We will not be responsible for any loss, delay, cost or liability which arises, directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, from: (a) your actions or omissions, or those of third parties which are not within our immediate and reasonable control; (b) your negligence or breach of any agreement with us; (c) any ambiguity, inaccuracy or omission in any instruction or information provided to us; (d) any error, failure or delay in the transmission or delivery of data, records or items due to a breakdown in any computer or communications facility; (e) accidents, strikes or labor disputes, civil unrest, fire, flood, water damage (e.g., from fire suppression systems), or acts of God; (f) causes beyond our reasonable control; (g) the application of any government or funds transfer system rule, guideline, policy or regulation; or (h) our inability to confirm to our satisfaction the authority of any person to act on your behalf except for losses caused by our gross negligence or willful misconduct, our liability for any loss, cost, or liability arising from our actions or omissions will not exceed the average monthly charge for the Service in question for the month preceding the date of loss, except as otherwise required by law. R. Limitations on Use and Access

Unless you have our prior written consent, you may not: (a) permit a third party to initiate any service we provide you on your behalf; or (b) use any services we provide you to process transactions on behalf of others.

S. Protection from Third Parties

You will indemnify and defend us against and hold us harmless from any and all liabilities, claims, costs, expenses and damages of any nature (including reasonable attorney's fees) arising out of or relating to disputes or legal actions by parties other than you and us concerning a service. The obligations contained in the preceding sentence will continue after a service you are using is terminated. This section does not apply to any cost or damage incurred by a third party which is attributable to our negligence or intentional misconduct and for which we are legally responsible.

T. Representations and Warranties

On and as of each day we provide any service to you, you represent and warrant to us that: Your agreement to each provision contained in this agreement is a duly authorized, legal, valid, binding and enforceable obligation; The debiting or crediting of any account is not inconsistent with any restriction on the use of that account; All approvals and authorization required to permit the execution and delivery of this Agreement and any supplementary materials and any other necessary documentation, and the performance and consummation by you of the transactions contemplated under each service we provide you, have been obtained, including but not limited to due authorization from each applicable third party to allow you to transfer funds to or from and to access information from such party's account; and Your performance of your obligations will not violate any rule, law, regulation, judgment, decree or order applicable to you, your accounts or this Access Agreement.

U. Software License

This section applies to all software (Software) we provide you under this Agreement unless we provide you a separate license agreement for specific Software. For each Software application we provide you for one or more Online Banking Services, we grant you a non-exclusive, non-transferable license for the use of that Software and its related materials. No such license grants you any rights to any patents, trademarks or trade names.

You may not sublicense, lease, distribute or otherwise transfer a Software application, the related materials or your right to use the Software and related materials.

You may not make, or allow anyone else to make, copies of the Software or related materials, beyond one copy for backup and archival purposes, except as we may otherwise agree in writing. You may not remove, obscure or deface any proprietary notices contained in the Software or related Materials, and you must include such notices in any permitted copy of the Software. You may not alter, modify or adapt any Software or related materials or create derivative works from them. You may not translate, reverse engineer, disassemble or de-compile the Software. A license to Software and related materials will terminate automatically if you fail to comply with the terms of the license or any other material provision in this Access Agreement or if the Online Banking Services for which you are using the Software are terminated. Upon termination of a license granted you in this Access Agreement, you must cease using the Software and related materials and, at our election, return or destroy all copies of the Software you may have in your possession or under your control, and certify to us that you have done so. All your obligations herein will survive termination of any licenses.

V. Termination

Covenant Bank reserves the right to terminate this Agreement and your access to Online Banking, in whole or in part, at any time without prior notice. These obligations will continue after a service you are using has been terminated. Termination of a service you use does not affect your payment obligations for services we provide to you before the service is terminated or any other obligation, which survive termination.
